Return From Crater Lake—

Mrs. E. Rehkopf, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hole, Sam Neas and Lola R. Allen returned Friday night from a trip to Crater lake. The trip was made by way of Gold Hill, and from there to the lake, and the roads are reported to be in first class condition. They were unable to approach nearer than a mile of the lake, because of snow, which has not yet cleared away.

Inspect Glendale Beets—

F. S. Bramwell, field superintendent for the sugar factory, was in Glendale Thursday, accompanied by K. Migoguchi, who has charge of all the Japanese laborers in the beet fields, says the Glendale News. Mr. Bramwell inspected the beet fields up Cow creek and reports that they are looking fine. He says that the beets have the best bottoms for this early in the season of any field he has seen in 15 years.

Visit Irrigation Project—

E. F. Manual and family were in the city Saturday, being en route to their home at Crescent City after having made a trip to northern California, where they invested in lands under the new irrigation system there. Others who were with the party that made the trip were J. M. and Hugh Pinkerton, of Crescent City; Alonzo Whitehouse of Oakland, Cal., and Miss Della Hays, of Crescent City.

Business Transactions Done on Credit

A large percent of many deals is a matter of credit. But you generally need some cash. If you have a deposit in the Josephine County Bank you may see an opportunity whereby you can use your money and credit and thereby double the actual cash you may invest. 804

Game Stopped by Darkness—

The twilight game Friday was stopped by darkness, with the score 6-6 in the beginning of the fifth inning. The Christians were nearer defeat in this game than at any time this season, the Baptists hitting Bratton hard the first few innings and forcing him to retire in favor of Trimble. Pittenger pitched good, steady ball for the Baptists, and Gale Smith put up a fast game as catcher. The Baptists held a large lead until the fifth, when the Christians began to slug. When it became too dark to see the ball, it was decided to defer the game to a later time. A collection was taken and a fair sized sum was realized. The money will be used to pay for balls and other necessary equipment used by the league.

The Proof.

"If your wife is such a terribly good cook why don't you eat more dinners at home?"

"How would I know how well she could cook if I didn't eat somewhere else?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Alternative.

Figg—My wife wants a new silk dress.

Fogg—Are you going to let her have it?

Figg—Yes. It's a case of silks or sulks.—Boston Transcript.

The Reason.

"Only a human paradox can put a weather sign on a steepie."

"Why so?"

"Because he is the only kind of man who can be successful in a vane attempt."—Baltimore American.
